Care That Comes from the Heart

What Does Comfort at Home Mean?

Home care is help with everyday activities in the comfort of your own home. It can include companionship, meal preparation, light housekeeping, errands, and assistance with bathing, dressing, and mobility.

Its goal is to help people stay safe, comfortable, and independent while giving families peace of mind.

Our Core Values

Compassion

Care that comes from the heart.

Respect

Honoring each person's dignity and independence.

Dependability

Being there when you need us.

Connection

Building trust through companionship and communication.

Our Services

Companion Care

Friendly companionship and engaging activities, plus help with meals, light housekeeping, errands, organization, and transportation.

Personal Care

Respectful assistance with bathing, dressing, toileting, eating, mobility, and incontinence care to support daily comfort and dignity.

Medication Reminders

Reminders to take medications as directed, plus recording and reporting unusual changes noticed after starting a new medication to the family or healthcare provider.

Respite Care

Short-term or long-term support that gives family caregivers time to rest and recharge. Ask about live-in care options.
